“We’re investing in growth to meet regional demand for our machines,” says National Sales Manager, Len Hampton, of Plustech, Inc., “Having roughly 8,500 square feet on the West Coast is a game-changer. Not only are we more readily available to our customers in Nevada, Idaho, Utah, California, and Texas, but now service calls and training opportunities will be closer as well, improving service response time and minimizing downtime.”

As an injection molding machine industry leader that has been doing business in North America for more than 20 years, Plustech Inc., is a joint venture between SODICK Company Limited, and Yamazen, Inc.. Plustech Inc. is also co-located with a Yamazen technical center in Newington, Connecticut, and recently relocated its U.S. base to a new, state-of-the-art 138,000 square foot facility in Elk Grove Village, Illinois, just outside of Chicago. The California showroom will share space with partner organization, Yamazen. SODICK Company Ltd.’s World Headquarters is in Japan.

Plustech has made a commitment to delivering the highest quality machines, the strongest technical support, and the most experienced service team to ensure its customers’ profitability and competitive edge toward productivity in the high-demand injection molding manufacturing industry.
